December 2009

Dear Palmetto Section Members,

What a great turnout we had at our joint meeting in November with the Upstate Supply Chain Coalition. Thank you to Lori Braswell for sharing her experience and many practical tips on how to keep our resumes sharp. A special thanks also goes to Shrikant Kulkarni for leading our first pre-meeting statistics seminar of the season. Shrikant will bring us our next pre-meeting seminar on January 12, where he will teach us about "Understanding the calculations involved in X-Bar and R chart control limits".

Plan to join us on December 8 to learn all about "Rum Making in Tennessee". Phil Prichard, owner of Prichard's Distillery in Kelso, Tennessee, will share with us about how blackstrap molasses is used to produce fine rum. Spouses and significant others are encouraged to join us at the December meeting.

To help us with planning and cost control, please pre-register on our web site at www.palmettoasq.org by 5 pm on the Thursday prior to our Tuesday meeting. Pre-registering will also save you a couple of bucks.

I would like to give a special thanks to all of you who have supported our section over the last year. Without your help and participation at our monthly meetings, we would not be able to offer the great line up of monthly meetings. I hope that you and your families have a restful holiday season.

Merry Christmas,
Glenn Hicks, ASQ CQE, SSBB
Chair Palmetto Section
